REGIONAL FEATURES & LOCAL LABOR (TOLEDO METRO)

Located within a day's drive of more than half of the U.S. and Canada, Northwest Ohio is ideally suited for businesses to reach customers and suppliers. Toledo also ranks as one of the Top 5 Rail Hubs in the U.S.

- Three of the country's most-traveled interstates cross through Toledo (I-75, I-80 and I-90).
- State and local tax incentives, grants and low-interest financing offer businesses the opportunity to reduce risk while encouraging investment in Ohio. Depending on location within Northwest Ohio, additional incentives are available at the local municipality or county levels. Incentives are determined on a project-by-project basis, and consider factors such as job creation, payroll and capital investment.
 - > Performance-based or Job Growth Incentives
 - > Workforce Training Assistance and / or Grants
 - > Property Tax Abatement in Real Estate Improvements
 - > Loan Programs
- 45 miles south of the Detroit Metropolitan Airport, one of the top international airports in the world. The Toledo Express Airport also offers flights to 200+ destinations worldwide.
- More industrial space within 300 miles of Toledo than any other location in the United States.
- Northwest Ohio has two Foreign Trade Zones designed to defer, reduce or even eliminate U.S. Customs duties on products admitted to the respective zone.
